

Brief CV

Maria E. Vega Antolín holds a Master Degree in Industrial Engineer from the Advanced School of Industrial Engineering of the University of Santander. Her professional career has been developed entirely in the nuclear area, specifically in company Equipos Nucleares S.A .; S.M.E. "Ensa" where she joined in the year 1997 in the Projects area, developing her work in the design, manufacture and installation of large and small components for Nuclear Power Plants around the world as Responsible later of Services and Special Projects area.

She currently holds the position of Vice President of Business Development integrating the areas of Special Projects, Services, Dismantling and Waste. Likewise, she holds the responsibility on behalf of ENSA of the company Enwesa Operaciones S.A .; S.M.E.

She is a member of the Spanish Nuclear Society and the Board of Directors of Win Spain. Since 2016 she also holds the position of President of the Cluster of the Nuclear Industry of Cantabria.