

Cristina Muñoz-Reja Ruiz

Born in 1962, is the current Fuel Technology Manager of the Spanish's Company ENUSA Industrias Avanzadas and she is also the Technical Project Manager for the introduction of the Accident Tolerant Fuel in Europe of the company.

Her Science bachelor's degree was obtained at the Universidad Autónoma de Madrid. Her professional career included companies and research centers in the materials fields especially in the area of the ceramics materials such as the Instituto de Cerámica y Vidrio (CSIC), Instituto Tecnológico de Materiales de Asturias (ITMA) and CERATEN (grupo Uralita).

Her first contact with the nuclear industry was in 1992 when she joined ENUSA in the Materials Technology group. Since that year she has held different responsibility positions within the Engineering Department.