

Anne-Marie Birac

Retired from French Alternative Energies and Atomic Energy Commission

+33 6 70 64 43 44 amcbirac@orange.fr

Career

Anne-Marie has a Master degree in Metallurgy, she is a non destructive testing expert, Communication specialist.

2010-2006: CEA (CEA- headquarters) International Division, in charge of CEA European bilateral relationship and of CEA counselor network in French Embassies (London, Roma, Budapest, Helsinki, Berlin and Warsaw).

2006-2002: INSTN French Institute for nuclear training and education. Survey of CEA doctoral and post-doctoral programme, Implementation of the LMD process within INSTN.

1999-2002: head of the multimedia department (Communication and Public affairs Directorate) : website, newsletters, magazines

1995-1999: Project leader for the nuclear propulsion Research & Development programme (CEA/headquarters)

1992-1995: Deputy head of the data base management department within scientific and technological documentation division (CEA/Saclay)

1988-1992: In charge of Evaluation within the Direction of Strategy and Evaluation. (Evaluation of teams, of programmes, methodology of evaluation)

1984-1988: Head of the in-service ultrasonic inspection team (100 people) within Intercontrôle (CEA subsidiary), In service inspection of nuclear components especially pressure vessel (qualification, maintenance, training, inspections on site) more than 100 operations and Technical assistance to the commercial activities (Belgium, Soviet Union, Slovenia, Germany, China, South Africa, ...)

1973-1984: Head of non destructive testing lab (CEA/Saclay): Elaboration and qualification of focused ultrasonic probes, participation to the conception, fabrication and validation of robotized tools for remote inspections (MIS), As a non destructive expert Anne-Marie was teaching both to students and professionals for years.

WiN and other women networks

Anne-Marie is involved in WiN since 2000.

As a member of the WiN France Board, she participated to the organization of WiN Global conference 2003 and 2008.

She has been in charged of Communication for years (WiN France and WiN Europe) : specification of WiN France and WiN Europe websites and creation of content, updating.

She is part of the selection committee for the WiN Fem'EnergiA Award.

Very recently, she resigned from the WiN France board and became one of the first members of the newly created adviser comittee of WiN France.

For WiN Global she has participated in the preparation of the WiN messaging. Anne-Marie was very active in the preparation of the WiN 20 Years Book delivered in. She was member of the WiN Global communication Committee.

She was a founding member of the CEA female network "Parité Diversité Femmes" and represented CEA to the female network 'Inter'Elles". She was head of different workshops in the framework of PDF and Inter'Elles. She is also member of «Femmes & Sciences ».

.