

CORAL GONZALEZ

Vice President and member of the Steering Committee of Tecnatom, leading Organization, IT and People.

She has developed her professional career in the world of human resources

- Leading human resources area in healthy and security companies: Sanitas and Prosegur
- Advising different -companies working in consultancy firms
 - Hay Group, during 14 years as a consultant. The last four years as Partner, taking responsibility for business in Spain
 - PeopleMatters, as Director, being responsible of human capital strategy, cultural change, talent management, leadership and executive development
 - Accenture, where she started her professional career.

She has worked for many companies advising and supporting the design and implementation of people management policies and processes of transformation and change.

While her stage as a consultant she has participated frequently in forums and conferences, and written articles related to people and organization.

She is Industrial Engineer and MBA from IESE.