

Xiaohong Cheng

Deputy Director

International Business

State Power Investment Corporation, China

Xiaohong Cheng is deputy director of international business of SPIC (State Power Investment Corporation). Prior to joining SPIC, Xiaohong served State Power Corporation, China Power Investment Corporation and State Nuclear Power Technology Corporation. She holds a bachelor's in French language and literature from Fudan University, a master's in civil law from China Politics and Law University. From 2013 to 2016, Xiaohong served as consultant of IAEA (International Atomic Energy Agency) in TC Division for Asia and the Pacific and Division for Africa to deliver TC programme, particularly for countries planning the introduction of nuclear power programmes in the Region. Xiaohong is a fluent Chinese, English and French speaker.